

PUBLICATION

Strengthening Fiscal Resilience in Africa

Policy options for improving fiscal sustainability and public investment.

May 14, 2026

Executive overview

This REEVO FIVE research resource brings together practical evidence, strategic analysis and implementation-focused recommendations for decision-makers across Africa and beyond.

Key considerations

The analysis examines institutional resilience, investment priorities, technology adoption and the partnerships required to turn policy intent into sustainable results.

Administrators can replace this managed document, its cover, summary, classification and destination link through Drupal without changing code.